

Quotes for the Week

Oh, the comfort, the inexpressible comfort of feeling safe with a person: having neither to weigh thoughts nor measure words, but to pour them out. Just as they are—chaff and grain together, knowing that a faithful hand will take and sift them, keep what is worth keeping, and then with the breath of kindness, blow the rest away. George Eliot

Friendships, like geraniums, bloom in the kitchens. Peter Lorimer

Be courteous to all, but intimate with few, and let those few be well tried before you give them your confidence. True friendship is a plant of slow growth, and must undergo and withstand the shocks of adversity before it is entitled to the appellation.

George Washington

All heaven and earth resound with that subtle and delicately balanced truth that the old paths are the best paths after all.

J.C. Ryle

The chains of habit are too weak to be felt until they are too strong to be broken.

Samuel Johnson
